

“I Know a Lot About” speech worksheet *

Tell us something you know a lot about. Is it model trains, growing plants, drawing, unicorns? Choose something you already know, or do some research on something you want to know a lot about, and share it with the group.

To pass this speech, you must rate satisfactory (or better) in all of the skills you have developed: eye contact, gestures, vocal variety, visual aids, and organization! You must also meet the time requirement. Satisfactory attire is also requested.

What is your topic and why did you choose it?

How can interested people learn more/get involved?

How did you first become interested in it?

Do you plan to learn even more about this topic? Why or why not?

Tell us details about 3 (or more) important things about this topic.

What are other topics that you are interested in learning more about in the future, and why?

Is there a group you belong to that is involved with this topic, for example a club?

Closing comment(s).

* The “Rule of 3”: Complete your speech worksheets at least 3 days before your speech, and practice your presentation out loud, with a timer, until you can meet your time goal 3 times in a row (and you like how your speech is sounding).
